Letters of Elaine

No. 1.

DEAR FAMILY:

They have been singing "My Little Grey Home in the West" and "A Perfect Day" downstairs; such beautiful songs, but so sad. I stole away to pour out my soul to you, as I shall do every Sunday of my college course. I must tell you all that has happened in this most eventful week of my life, so that you may live it over with me.

I was met at the station by a tall lady, dressed in white and wearing a blue badge. She seemed to be expecting me, so I knew the President must have sent her down as your letter requested. She took me to an automobile which was filled with three people on the back seat. One asked me to sit on her lap, but I refused, as I knew you would wish me to, not having been introduced. As I was wondering if it would be proper to sit in front with the chauffeur, a crowd of noisy girls pushed past me into the machine, which drove away, leaving me on the platform. So I walked up to the campus, asking my way, and feeling very independent.

The campus, you know, is a sort of woods where the college is situated; it is about three miles from the village, which is such a quaint, pleasant place that I wish I were going to see it oftener. I am planning to walk down there some holiday. On the way I passed a cunning little house with a sign saying, "Simpson Cottage." I hoped they would put me there, for it looked so much cozier than the big dormitories. Further along, on a hill, was Alice Freeman Palmer's tomb. I wish you would give me her picture for my room—all the girls have it. I should also like one of her tomb, which I was told can be bought in the village. I finally reached a low building which I thought must be the Barn, but was told by another lady with a blue badge that it was the Hencoop, where I registered. I suppose the Fire drove the college to such an extremity. They were fortunate to have such an extensive hencoop; they seem to do everything there.

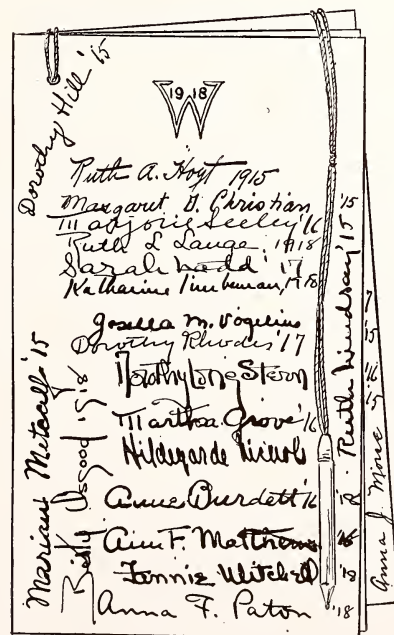

I was told to go to Mary Hemenway for a physical examination, and was directed to the gymnasium where they made me put on a most unbecoming white garment. I saw so many ladies that I couldn't decide which was Miss Hemenway. I hated to ask for fear of picking out the wrong one, especially as I felt a bit ill at ease in my costume, which was much too short and fastened only with tapes. So I'm afraid I shan't recognize her when I meet her.

When I finally got to my room, which must be about six miles from the station, as I had to walk at least three miles from the gymnasium, I was so tired that I am afraid I didn't appreciate my roommate, who is very talkative. She is not the bosom friend that I hoped I should find her. She laughed at me most of the evening, which I did not think very considerate on so short an acquaintance. She knows a lot about college though—all about societies. She says she's going to sign up for Phi Sigma.

The next morning we went to song practice led by a girl they call "Dicky"; we all thought she was wonderful. It was my first taste of real college life—just as I knew it would be. After that, the Seniors, who are splendid girls, all very brilliant as one would expect of people who have been here four years, played an exciting baseball game. In the afternoon they gave us a tea on the lawn and in the evening the cleverest vaudeville I have ever seen. One girl, who did magic stunts, I discovered was Miss Hoyt, our village Senior. Think how distinguished we have all felt since then. Some of the girls sang the cutest song called, "Stick to Your Lulu." We have been singing it all the time. You see college is a very pleasant place where everybody seems to be good about entertaining us. I'm sure I shall like it. And I will truly be careful to avoid the grind of which you speak, altho' I have not observed it yet.

I have been thinking very seriously since the President spoke in chapel yesterday morning, of my purpose in coming to college, and I have decided that my aim is to become broadened. Most all the girls feel the necessity of that—even my room-mate, altho' she tries to treat it with levity and says she wants to get "narrowed" so that she can wear her sister's clothes.

I must get ready for chapel now. I shall go every day, as it is very inspiring. I hope you are not missing me too much. I will write everything, and if you will keep the letters, I may sometime feel that I can give them to the world.

Your loving daughter,

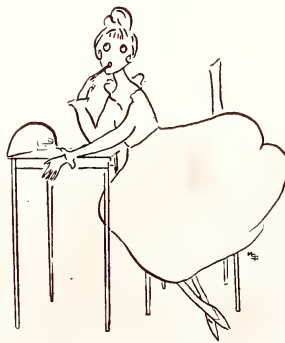

ELAINE.

P. S.—My room-mate is such a clever girl. We have been given teas every day this week and she just remarked, "We have been teased to death." Wasn't that amusing?

E.

P. P. S.—I have enclosed my C. A. program so you may see my friends' names.

ELAINE.

No. 2.

DEAR FAMILY:

I feel like a real college girl when I run up to the college to play group games, in my cunning little sport suit and my white sweater. I'm going to buy a "W" for it as soon as I find time. I noticed several upper classmen wearing them. They all seem to have grey sweaters, and when I inquired the reason, they said that I would soon have one too. Isn't that interesting? There are so many things that one keeps finding out about college. I've decided to sign up for the "celeb" society, for I found that all the nicest girls I've seen around here are "celebs."

Last night the Sophomores serenaded us, marching down the street with beautiful lanterns. They sang such a cute song about "Comp and Math and Hygiene all the day." English Composition, you know, and Mathematics, which we are required to take. I wondered if I would ever be a Sophomore. My roommate says she wants to go to bed; so this must be the end. I sometimes think that I am one of the people who should be alone.

Your loving daughter,

ELAINE.

P. S.—Our village Senior just came in and asked me to call her by her first name. Isn't that sweet of her?

No. 3.

DEAR FAMILY:

I have a friend! We discovered each other while blacking shoes for the Fire Fund, and we have gone into partnership. We have earned forty-five cents, at ten cents a pair. It makes one so self-reliant to know that one can earn something. I find that I have not time to write as I had wished. I must have my hair shampooed now for the benefit of Fire Fund.

Lovingly,

ELAINE.

Song from Freshman Serenade

Tune—"On the Way to Mandalay."

We're marching on
With lights and song
And we shall march this way the whole night long:
Far from the Vill
Where we belong
We have come to show we're strong
For Sophomores!

Serenading
While we're promenading,
Our lights never fading,
See how
We march along
With lights and song
To show we're strong
For you!

DEAR FAMILY:

Elections today! Never was so thrilled! I had four votes for secretary and would have had five but I voted for Peg. Our cheering was wonderful.

CHRISTMAS VACATION

Our ambition to become "Leading Ladies" is gratified; dormitory dancing teaches us the most effective way of "taking him off his feet."

* We have no more records of Elaine's college days, except scattered telegrams, etc. Whether or not Wellesley ceased to know her after midyear's is a question which must remain a secret to the curious public.

FIRE FUND VICTORY

At a stirring mass meeting in the chapel Friday, January 15th, Wellesley celebrated the raising of the Restoration Fund of $2,000,000, all of which was collected in small but remarkably generous gifts from students, alumnae, and friends of the college, in an unprecedentedly short time. In the evening the student-body marched through campus and village, carrying transparencies and flaring torches.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT AT THE COPLEY PLAZA

For the first time in its history the Glee Club held its annual concert in Boston, at the Copley Plaza, February 5th. The concert was followed by dancing.

JUNIOR-FRESHMAN ARBITRATION SOCIAL

The warring nations laid aside their guns Saturday night and endeavored to settle their differences by peaceful competition. A remarkable Japanese "movie," a blood-curdling Turkish cheer, and an eight-inch Servian smile were among the winners.

OUR FIRST FRESHMAN SOCIAL

April 10th was 1918's busy day. The class held a social in Billings Hall which proved so alluring that several Sophomores felt impelled to attend and were only discovered when someone saw Cora Lee-king through the door.

After ejecting the Sophomores, the Freshmen, in staunch double line, defended the Ghost Walk W of their sister class, and then finished the evening by ingeniously mislaying all available Sophomore sheets.

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE, A DOUBLE VICTORY FOR WELLESLEY

Billings Hall was crowded, even to the fire-escapes, on the evening of March 8th, by girls eager to hear the debate between Mt. Holyoke and Wellesley. The intermissions were filled with songs and cheering, and the decision was received with deafening applause. Afterwards, the entire college gathered on the steps of the President's house to await the news of the victory at Vassar, announced by the tolling of the Stone Hall bell.

Operetta: "Brushing Up On Art"

DUTCH GIRLS:

Tell us what they wear there,
 Tell us what they say,
 How they fix their hair there,
 How they pass the day.
 Are the women fair there?
 Are they sad or gay?
 Oh, tell us all you know about the
 U. S. A.

THE INN-KEEPER:

Everybody rides in cars,
 Walking makes them bored;
 The first sign of prosperity
 Is the purchase of a Ford.
 And when they cross the river,
 A boat is much too slow;
 They jump into a subway train
 And underneath they go.

CHORUS:

We see that you are right,
 The life is very bright,
 In the dancing, dressing, festive
 U. S. A.
 Our opinion's not worth much,
 We are only home-made Dutch;
 But we'd rather be in Holland any day.

Freshman Step Song

We Freshmen are full of surprises,
 You never can tell how we'll go;
 But just give us time to develop,
 If we're green then at least we can grow!

Though our freshness be plain, it is better,
 By far to be verdant than blue;
 Though you say we're sea-green, just remember,
 Our class may have sharks in it too!

In Gym work our skill is surprising,
 We'll take to athletics with ease;
 While, with intellects super-gigantic,
 We'll corner those cute Kappa keys.

When feminine emancipation
 Transforms parasite to a queen,
 The ruler of White House and nation
 May be of the class of Eighteen!

Class Song

Nine-teen eight-teen, Nine-teen eight-teen, strive to know the best, know the best—

In sin-cer-i-ty and friend-ship al-ways stand the test stand the test—

Though in years to come, far from there we roam

We will love and rev-'rence still our coll- ege home

Spir-it of our eight-teen burn-ing thru dim years, Oh

Lead us on to fairer future deeds for the glory of our eight-teen

Musical Cheer

Eight-teen! Eight-teen! —! —! —! Nine-teen eight-teen sings to you.

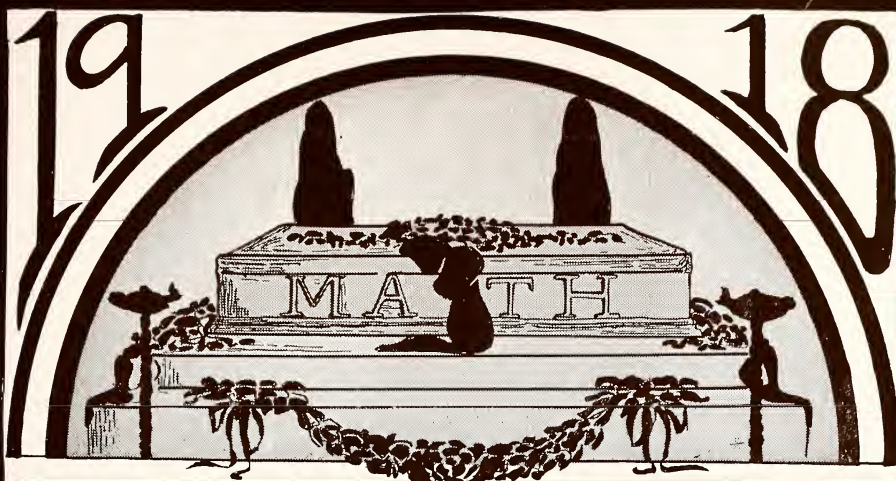

Float Night

Tonight the lake holds carnival
With music, light, and pageantry;
Across the water bugles call,
On shore gay voices hum.
From out the waiting darkness then,
Floating slow, majestic'ly,
Bringing magic back again,
The fairy barges come.

Color glows along the lake;
Long reflections waveringly
On its rippled surface shake
In play of shifting hues.
Then "Catch away," and "Catch away,"
And rowing swiftly, rhythmic'ly,
With click of oars and bodies' sway,
Come the college crews.

From the lake the singing floats
Dreamily and eerily,
Echoed back from shore to boats,
From lake again to hill.
Rockets soar with sudden flare
In swift curves, then gloriously,
Poised a moment high in air,
Their showers of stars they spill.

Like a rocket is the night,
Flaming, glowing brilliantly;
One brief moment of delight,
Then a starry memory.

A WORD TO THE WISE!

SAGITTAL SECTION OF FORENSIC BURNING AFTERNOON

October 30th: The Ghost Walk. Query: Did the Juniors form a W, or a question mark?

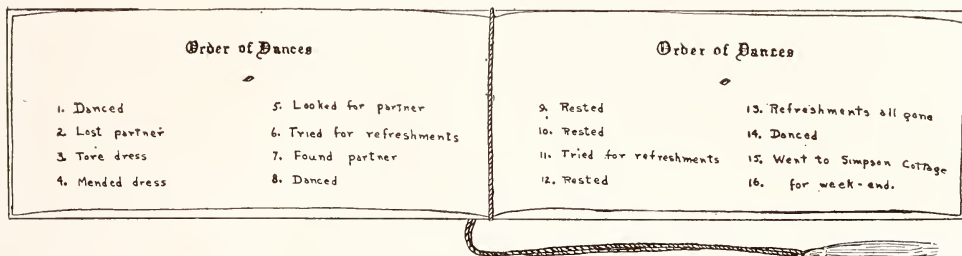

FIELD DAY, NOVEMBER 6TH

If our programs told what really happened:

THE WORM THAT TURNED!

All Wellesley is remarking on the wonderful control that the class of 1918 is exhibiting in the face of their great sorrow. With the exception of the black bands which all wore on their arms on Friday, no outward sign of grief was visible. 1918 has buried its Math books.

The other classes did not realize what was happening until they saw the long Sophomore Book-worm come winding up the road to the green. Beneath its dark striped body hundreds of white feet crept along and two glaring eyes protruded from its ugly head. The Seniors protected the "Worm" from the onslaughts of the "Odd Classes," as it wound out over the Green, chanting the traditional dirge.

"The Angles Have Taken Our Darlings"

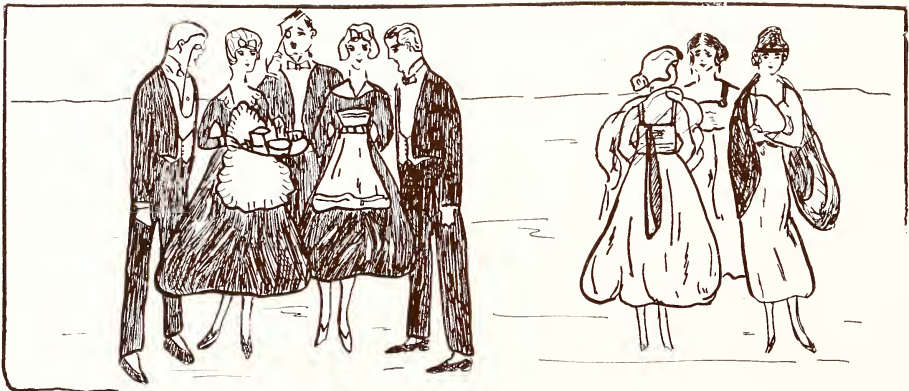

SOCIETY NOTE

St. Barnabus was the scene of the season's most brilliant wedding on Saturday evening, January 8th, when Meaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wellesley, Sr., was united in marriage to Timmie, 18's most promising daughter. The bride was gowned in white net with a court train of linen, and the diaphanous folds of her long veil were held in place by a circle of pearls. She wore the groom's gift, a priceless necklace of beautifully matched pearls, and carried his red roses. The ceremony was performed under a green and white bower by the Rt. Rev. Amy Rothchild.

At the close of the ceremony a reception was held at which all who had been fortunate enough to catch one of the roses from the bride's bouquet had the pleasure of a dance with the new Mrs. Wellesley.

New, democratic, secret society at Wellesley. Everyone is given the "Grippe."

SOPHOMORE MAIDS AT SENIOR PROM

"Score One for 'Little Sister' "

PLAY TRY-OUTS FOR "THE SHOES THAT DANCED."

VARIOUS TYPES RENDER THE LINES: "OH, SEE MY DARLING LITTLE FOOT!"

Freshie lost our Timmie's shoe,
Thought it was the thing to do.
Freshie's still a trifle green;
Ain't she cute? She's just '19!

SOPHOMORE OPEN HOUSE

Along the paths of Tupelo to Open House we blundered,
Simple, social sophomores who longed to be in style;
And "If the lamp would really burn?" quite openly we wondered,
Ignorant of etiquette and innocent of guile.
And if any one seemed crusty
When we said the owls were dusty,
"Their sweep-day comes on Saturday," we reasoned with a smile.

CHORUS:

But we noticed we were not the only ones who wore a smile.
We asked who wore the helmet, and whether we could try it,
But a senior thrust some food at us, and as there was no chair,
We thought we'd act at home. Alas! there fell an awful quiet
As we perched quite nonchalantly on the biggest table there.
How should we know we weren't able
To eat ice-cream on that table?

For there was no warning label, so of course we couldn't know!

CHORUS:

We were only simple sophomores, and we were too young to know!

OUR FAMILY PARTY

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, Beebe, Cazenove, Stone, Fiske, Wilder, Norumbega, Freeman, Wood, Village, and Lake, gathered at the Barn for a social hour. During the evening, each family was called upon to provide some feature of the entertainment, to the great amusement of the assembled company. Plenty of peanuts and lemonade, with buttered pop-corn, hot from the popper's wagon, added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. Excellent music was furnished for the dancing by Mr. Pedro Organi.

UP FROM THE ASHES OF YESTERDAY

The days of old College Hall—so vivid in the memory of all Wellesley alumnae—have passed, and 1918 is the first class to spend its four years in College knowing the familiar halls of the original Wellesley from tradition alone. The first great chapter of our history has ended, but with the completion of Tower Court we have seen the first steps in the new epoch well begun. The Hill has assumed again its old dignity and distinction, and has given us the promise of the new and finer Wellesley which is to arise out of the old.

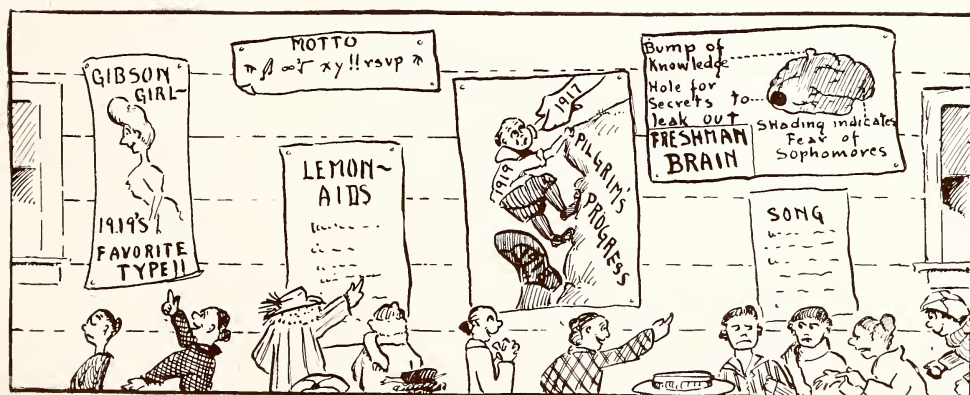

Little Green-horner
Came round a corner,
And saw a man on the grass.
She sounded her horn,
But he answered with scorn,
"Can't you see I'm mowing, me lass?"

ILLUSTRATED SONG:
"THE WEARING OF THE GREEN."

GO TO CHAPEL WEEK

The Sophomore transept has been well filled on several mornings recently, owing to the fact that 1918 has been vigorously observing a Go-to-Chapel Week. It was hoped that in this way other classes might be inspired to make a similar effort. As a preliminary measure, therefore, the Sophomores generously provided a duster outside the Chapel door for the use of those taking seats in the Freshman transept!

WE PRESENT 1919'S TREE DAY TO THE PUBLIC

Dedication of Shakespeare Garden

We planted our class flower,
 “. . . violets dim
 But sweeter than the lids of Juno’s eyes
 Or Cytherea’s breath.”

—“Winter’s Tale,” Act. IV, Sc. IV.

May 8th: We formed 1916’s numerals on College Hall hill. Owing to zealous and extensive guarding of our class officers, our numerals did not lose their “point” in spite of 1917’s efforts.

“Beautiful gown, so rich and green,
 Waiting to deck ’19’s May queen!
 We came, we saw, we conquered it.
 Then Timmie wore it—elegant fit.”

CREW SONG

With a long slow slide and a rhyth-mic glide, the feel of the oar in hand

A spurt of spray as the bright blades play, And Tsu-lu-lan leaps from the land from the land

With a stead-y swing and a sturdy fling, Our Tsu-lu-lan the race be-gins,

And Eight-een's crew is sway-ing true in the strong, straight stroke that wins

The bubbles churn to foam astern,
The waves break white before,
And liquid rings, like jeweled things,
Swirl from the lifted oar.

Our bow cuts clean through the limpid green,
Swift as a flashing glance,
With a fluted wake athwart the lake
Where shattered sunbeams dance.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE SPADE

Tweedledum, 1918.

Tweedledee, 1919.

Alice.

Tweedledum and Tweedledee
Discussion once essayed;
For Tweedledum said Tweedledee
Should have his dear old spade.

Tweedledee.

Beware the Freshman class, my son!
The bell that rings, the arms that catch,
Beware the chug chug car and shun
The frummious Timmy snatch!

Tweedledum.

'Twas Perky and the Curtis girl,
Did profit by that frabjous sport,
For glibly gloating Timmy taught
Them in the art of grosh retort.
How doth the little Freshman gloat
O'er all her valiant deeds,
Does she remember mid-year's time,
And stolen Freshman feeds?

Tweedledee.

How doth the little Grafter graft
Ice-cream and frosted cake?
Go ask the window in the Barn
Which she in haste did break.
How doth the little Sophomore
Reform the other classes?
The chapel knew her for a week,
But now she blithely passes.

Tweedledum.

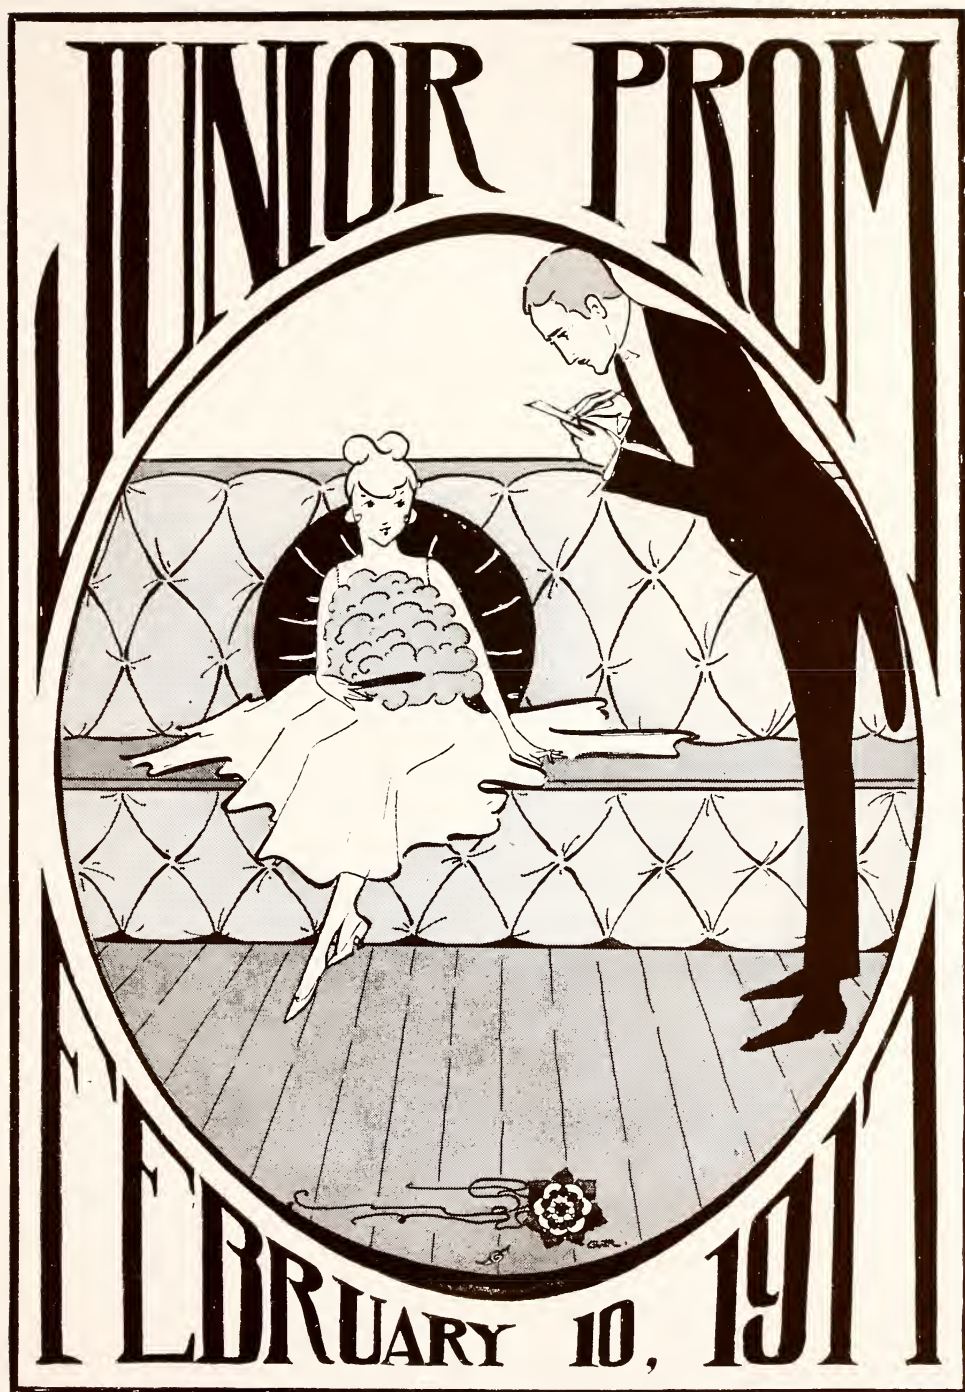

"You are young, little '19," the Sophomore said;
"And your digging is still very slight,
But yet we are willing to give you this spade,
If you're sure that its use will be right."

Tweedledum.

"Can't you cheer a little louder?" said
Miss Meeker to Miss Clough,
"We want to cheer especially well, but you don't make noise enough.
See how eagerly the people wait, your lusty voice to hear,
But they never once have ever heard
you really give a cheer.

Tweedledee.

"Can't you blow a little louder?" said
Miss Edith to '18;
"There are people just behind you, and they're treading on the green.
See how eagerly the Freshmen their horns blow loud and clear,
But your thinly piping whistles no one can ever hear!"

GHOST WALK

The Dirge as she is sung:

"Sic nos prosequimur foras"—

This pillow-slip is some disguiser;
But more a blind-fold than a visor.

"Forensis miseris"—

I'm like to bake!

"Exsequias"—

Ah! here's the stake!

"Tuas."

"Tu quendam lacrimabilis"—

My candle's gone but stop I dare not.
Is this a W or a square-knot?

"Nunc nobis lacrimas"—

And what comes then?

"Ipsi tibi"—

Say it again;
Oh yes! "Petis."

"Victor victus est; hac die"—

I tripped: but whether on my own
Or Susie's sheet will be unknown.

"Iam caelum resonant"—

The "W" flashes,

"Eo, 'Vale,' "

And dies in ashes.

"Vale!"

NOTE: If the Latin pronunciation is too difficult, the singing of "Da-dum-da" in its place is sanctioned by the usage of at least 84 per cent. of the class.

HONORARY MEMBER

The Juniors gave the college no little surprise on January 27, when Ruth Lange and Margaret Goldschmidt escorted 1918's honorary member, Dr. Raymond Calkins, to chapel. Dr. Calkins is President of the Board of Trustees of Bradford Academy and pastor of the Shepard Memorial Congregational Church of Cambridge. As a very popular minister at the college, as a favorite speaker at Silver Bay, and also as the brother of Professor Mary W. Calkins of the Philosophy Department, Dr. Calkins has been known in the past to Wellesley girls; and the other classes heartily endorsed 1918's choice in the cheering which followed chapel services.

During the nine o'clock hour, a number of the Juniors met Dr. Calkins informally at the Zeta Alpha House, where he was properly installed as a member of 1918 by learning the class cheer and song, and declaring himself ready and willing to take part in any class activity, from barn socials to baseball.

JUNIOR HOP

A Junior Hop, the first in the history of Wellesley, was given with great success at the Maugus Country Club on February 10th.

(Senior note:

Gather ye rosebuds while ye may;
The war may come another day!)

TOPICAL SONG

If war should really be declared,
How could we be of aid?
We'd dig a trench across the Green
With our famous Tree Day spade;
We'd fill it with a Zoology class
That had specialized in nerve,
And then of course our tennis teams
Are always glad to serve.

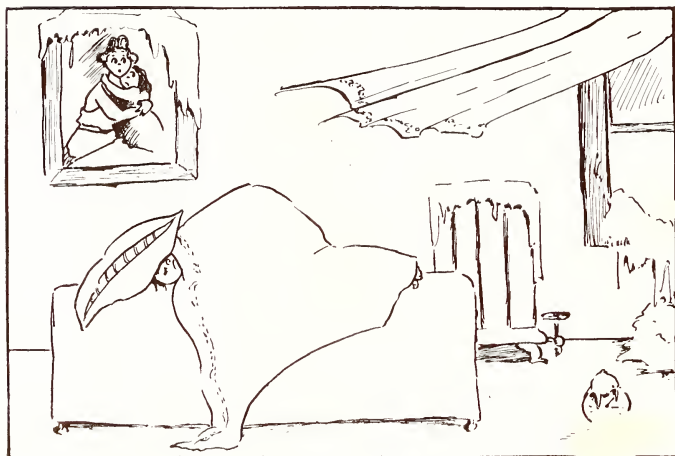

JUNIOR "HOP-SCOTCH"

By means of our philosophy
We'd show the enemy
That if we ceased to think of them,
They simply wouldn't be.
And if that thought would not suffice
To take away their breath,
We'd knit them fuzzy mufflers
That would tickle them to death.

In the matter of inventions
We would never know defeat;
We'd make a scouting airplane
From three golf-sticks and a sheet.
With a hair-pin and a safety-pin,
Gilt paper and some glue,
There's nothing that we haven't done,
There's nothing we can't do.

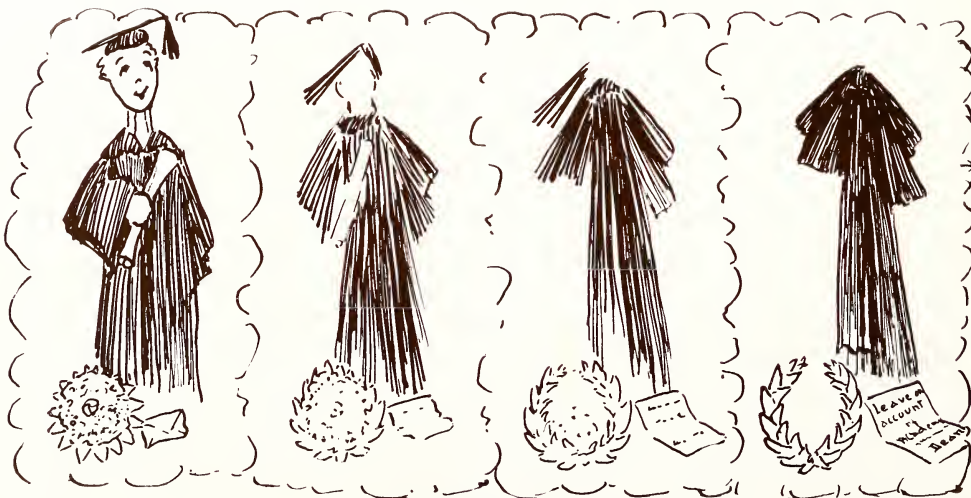

LEGEND

BLANK-ET VERSE

My bed looks like a dry-goods

- 7:14 A. M. Dreamed I was voting.
- 7:15 A. M. Woke up.
- 7:17 A. M. Washed.
- 7:28 A. M. Voted on twelfth ballot; no decision.
- 7:30 A. M. Had breakfast. Discussed the candidates calmly and impersonally. I shall never speak to Mary Jones again!
- 7:51 A. M. Wrote out stock of ballots for the day.
- 8:00 A. M. Voted on thirteenth ballot; no decision.
- 8:30 A. M. "Golden Rule" read in Chapel; hope opponents took note.
- 8:47 A. M. Voted on fourteenth ballot; no decision.
- 9:00 A. M. Attended Math class. Calculated how many $\frac{3}{4}$ of 317 people would be. Hooray! we only need 128 more votes!
- 9:46 A. M. Voted on fifteenth ballot; no decision.
- 9:55 A. M. Attended Bible Class. Remembered opposing candidate stepping on my foot at last Barnswallows. Query: Would it be ethical to bring this fact into the campaign?
- 10:41 A. M. Voted on sixteenth ballot; no decision.
- 10:50 A. M. Attended Physics Class. Proved the possibility of having two bodies occupy the space of one; shall try it with my next ballot.
- 11:36 A. M. Voted on seventeenth ballot; no decision.
- 11:45 A. M. Discussed candidates in Library. Dealt dispassionately with problems of democracy, personality, executive ability, social poise, and prestige. Was asked to leave the Library for pounding on the table.
- 12:30—1:29 P. M. Ate paper-bag lunch. Voted on eighteenth to twenty-fifth ballots; no decision.
- 1:30—4:15 P. M. Attended Zoology Class. Concentrated on the vital spots of the body and how to reach them.
- 4:16—6:03 P. M. Voted on twenty-sixth to forty-first ballots; no decision.
- 6:05 P. M. HICKIE UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED!

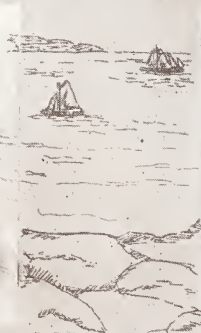

STEP SINGING AFTER SENIOR ELECTION

1918, her banners flying, her ranks recruited to full strength, and her latest and best "big guns" afloat in a submarine fresh from the Diehl Canal, bombarded Step Singing with a rapid fire of song hits. Awaiting the signal of the bugle for action, this jolly crew aimed their musical missiles first at their new commanders, "Hickie" Lange and "Dot" Stern, and then at the veteran Seniors, who surrendered to 1918's charms and wished the new officers "Happy Senior 'Crews!'"

1918 IN THE VILLAGE

'Twas spring when we came calling on the Student Gov'ment president,
 Hoping very earnestly the chances weren't too meagre
 That we might be considered as an Elms or Eliot resident:
 We were not too optimistic, but we certainly were eager!

'Twas fall when, academicalled and feeling rather lonely,
 We led our first house-meetings with unparalleled ability.
 Lest Freshmen think that we excelled in static matters only,
 We whizzed around on bicycles with swiftness and agility.

'Twas winter when we paused and posed a minute in our rushing
 To chapel and to chapter house, to Stone and Quad and Hill,
 To prove that notwithstanding grey book, Sunday rules, and shushing,
 It's no trouble to "Keep Smiling," for the Seniors in the Vill!

MEDITATION DURING SENIOR PROCESSION.

Nineteen Eighteen, Nineteen Eighteen,
Strive to know the best!
(Hope I am not apoplectic—
Collars are a pest!)
Though in years (I might Have known my cap would look a fright!)
We will love (there goes my tassle out of sight!)
Spirit of our eighteen!
(Ouch! I tripped again!
This gown will make a dandy wiper
For my leaky fountain pen.)

1918'S TEAM-ROLLER

The Seniors roll up a winning Field Day score, Saturday, November 3rd. Dr. Calkins witnessed the "crushing" defeat that 1918, with the aid of her "team-roller," driven by "Peg" Boyd, inflicted on the other classes.

HOO-VERSES

Flour in the kitchen wall,

You are dearer far than bran is.

DRILL

I

Said an O. R. C. captain
 At mobilization,
"This scheme is superb
 For your coördination ;
But the mystic maneuvers
 That give you this thrill
Resemble a cork-screw
 Far more than a drill."

II

There once was a maiden of yore
Who said, "I won't drill any more!"
When they questioned her why,
She would languidly sigh,
"Because the drill is a bore!"

This is the strangest paradox
 That I have e'er heard spoken,—
The faster that you fall asleep,
 The less your sleep is broken.

TO MYSELF—ANY MORNING IN JANUARY

Essence of laziness, arise, be fleet.
Fling off thy chill and prickling blankets. What!
Huddle again into an aching knot!
Shrinking from glacier areas of sheet!
Scorn to hold consort with a springless bed,
And radiator clacking with the cold.
Come, straighten out thy twining limbs; behold!
From snowy coverlid emerge thy head,
And step thee jauntily upon the floor.
What, does it turn to ice thy luke-warm soul?
See, Dr. Grenfell throve in Labrador,
And Peary jigged and whistled at the Pole!
Arise, thy frozen water-bag possess;
Thou hast five minutes left in which to dress!

Squirrel, squirrel bounding light
'Mid the leaves at dizzy height,
Do you know that gravity
Is the force that you defy?

Carpal bones in paw and foot;
Shaggy covering hirsute,—
Can you tell me whence they came,
Give their origin and name?

Arboreal rodent, thou,
Lightly leap from bough to bough;
I must leave thee, for alack!
I have harder nuts to crack!

UPS AND DOWNS OF FRESHMAN SCIENCE

Peggie studied Botany,
Helen studied Zo,
And every Sunday morning
For a science walk they'd go.

Helen sought her forty birds
In all the trees and towers;
Peggie searched each clump of weeds
To see her hundred flowers.

It's odd, but Peg was oft tripped up
With eyes upon the ground,
While Helen, with her gaze aloft,
Quite frequently was downed.

THE VOICE OF THE SPEAKER IS HEARD IN THE HALL

Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered weak and weary,
Over many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore,
While I studied, sometimes sputtering, suddenly there came a muttering
As of someone softly stuttering, muttering in the corridor.
"Tis some elocutors muttering all along the corridor,"
Said I, gazing from my door.

Ah, distinctly I remember it was in the bleak December,
And through transoms came the muttering louder than before,
Voices gay and voices tragic, voices harsh and voices magic,
These the words that floated down the drafty corridor,
Words that filled me with fantastic tremors never felt before,
Merely these and nothing more.

"Is this a dagger that I see?"

"It falleth as the rain from heaven."

"Charge! Chester! Charge! On Stanley! On!"

"Oh, Master, we are seven."

"I remember, I remember,"

"The sea! the sea! the open sea!"

"The breaking waves dashed high,"

"And oh, the difference to me."

THE END

"Waken! Lords and Ladies gay!"

"He stoppeth one of three,"

"And finds too late that men betray"

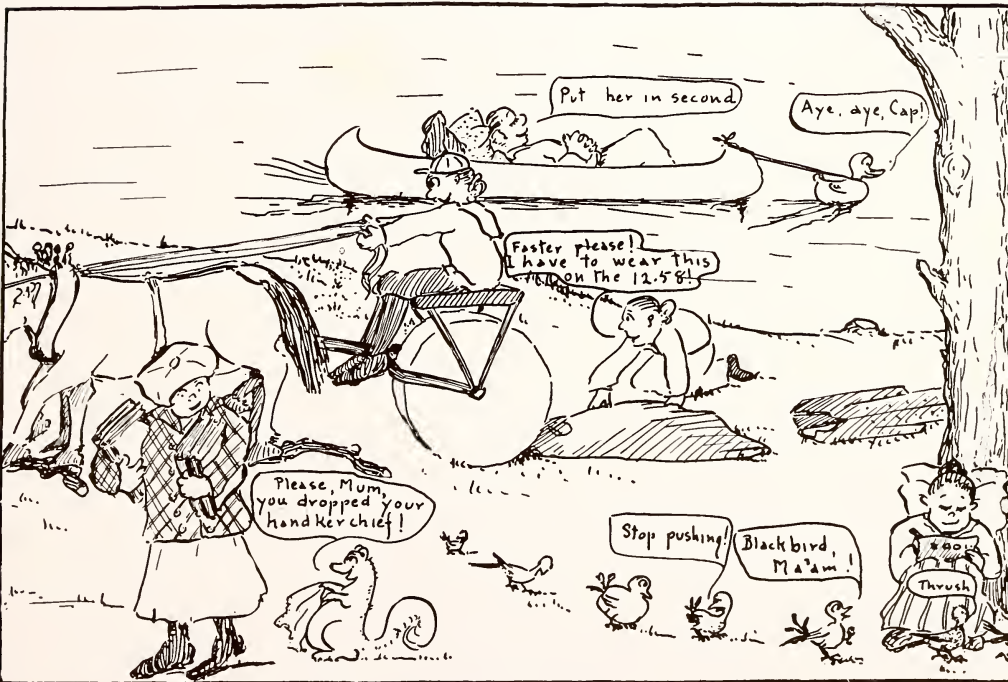

"And go to Innisfree."

"Rise! Sleep no more! Macbeth doth murder sleep!"

"By Nebo's lonely mountain, on this side of Jordan's wave"

"There was a sound of revelry by night,—"

"The paths of glory lead but to the grave."

335 reasons for 1918's being a remarkable class! (See page 95-150).

In this day of rising prices, ah! how comforting to think we may still keep our voices low!

OPTIMIST: Cheer up! One swallow doesn't make a summer!

PESSIMIST: No, but it does make a war portion!

HEARD IN LEGENDA BOARD MEETING: Hey Monty! What was that other funny thing I said?

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

While we do not sell women's clothing, it is our experience that there is, on the part of many women, especially those interested in sport, a growing tendency to purchase from us for their own use Motor Coats, Sweaters, Wool Caps, Waistcoats, Gloves, Mufflers, Boots, Leggings, Puttees, etc., liking these articles all the more apparently because, as distinct from being "mannish," they are the very things that are worn by men

HERETICS

Sing a song of heresies;
Vials of wrath outpoured!
Four-and-twenty grouches
Posted on the board.
When your eyes are opened
To Wellesley's glaring crimes,
You'll doubt that such atrocities
Exist in modern times!

"The Claflin muffins are too sweet;
Of sugar it's a waste!"

It certainly is

SPLendid!!

"Knitting at the table
Is questionable taste!"

"The little fuzzy squirrels, —
How sad that they must go!"

It is criminal !!!

That's the talk!!

"Why can't all class appointments stop,
So we can shovel snow?"

How do you know? "Societies and eating clubs
Have tendencies pro-German."

*Tell the Government!
Government couldn't do anything &
could so!!!*

Give statistics.

"The chapel would be packed if we Could have a daily sermon."

*Have your paper-
bag monogrammed;
I don't want it!*

"Paper bags for lunches
Should be economized."

THAT'S WHAT I SAY !!

*Very true !!
THE IDEA!!*

"By greedy, grasping, high-brows
The Mag's monopolized!"

Too Good to Pass By

The egg-beater is performing stunts nowadays that were never even dreamed of a short time ago—not with eggs or cream, but with Jell-O.

With an egg-beater and a package of Jell-O the college girl is equipped to make something new—any one of fifty good things to eat that will be enjoyed as a welcome change from the monotony of fudge and kindred fixings.

Plain Jell-O dishes are fine, as everybody knows, but the whipped forms, as easy as the other, are even finer.

Following is a recipe for whipping Jell-O. It is much easier than it sounds:

To Whip Jell-O

Dissolve a package of Jell-O in a pint of boiling water and let it cool. Begin to whip the jelly while it is still liquid—cold but not yet congealing—and whip until it is of the consistency of thick whipped cream. Use a Dover egg-beater and keep the Jell-O cold while whipping by setting the dish in cracked ice, ice water or very cold water. A tin or aluminum quart measure is an ideal utensil for the purpose. Its depth prevents spattering, and tin and aluminum admit quickly the chill of the ice or cold water.

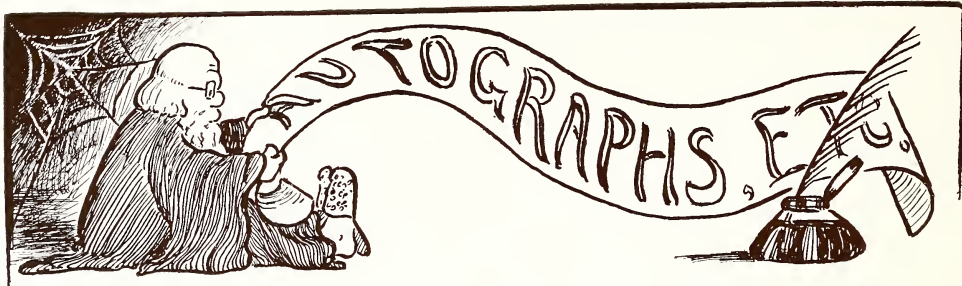

Add cream or whatever else goes into the dessert, if anything does, after—not before—whipping the Jell-O.

The whipping process more than doubles the quantity of plain Jell-O, so that when whipped one package of Jell-O serves twelve persons instead of six.

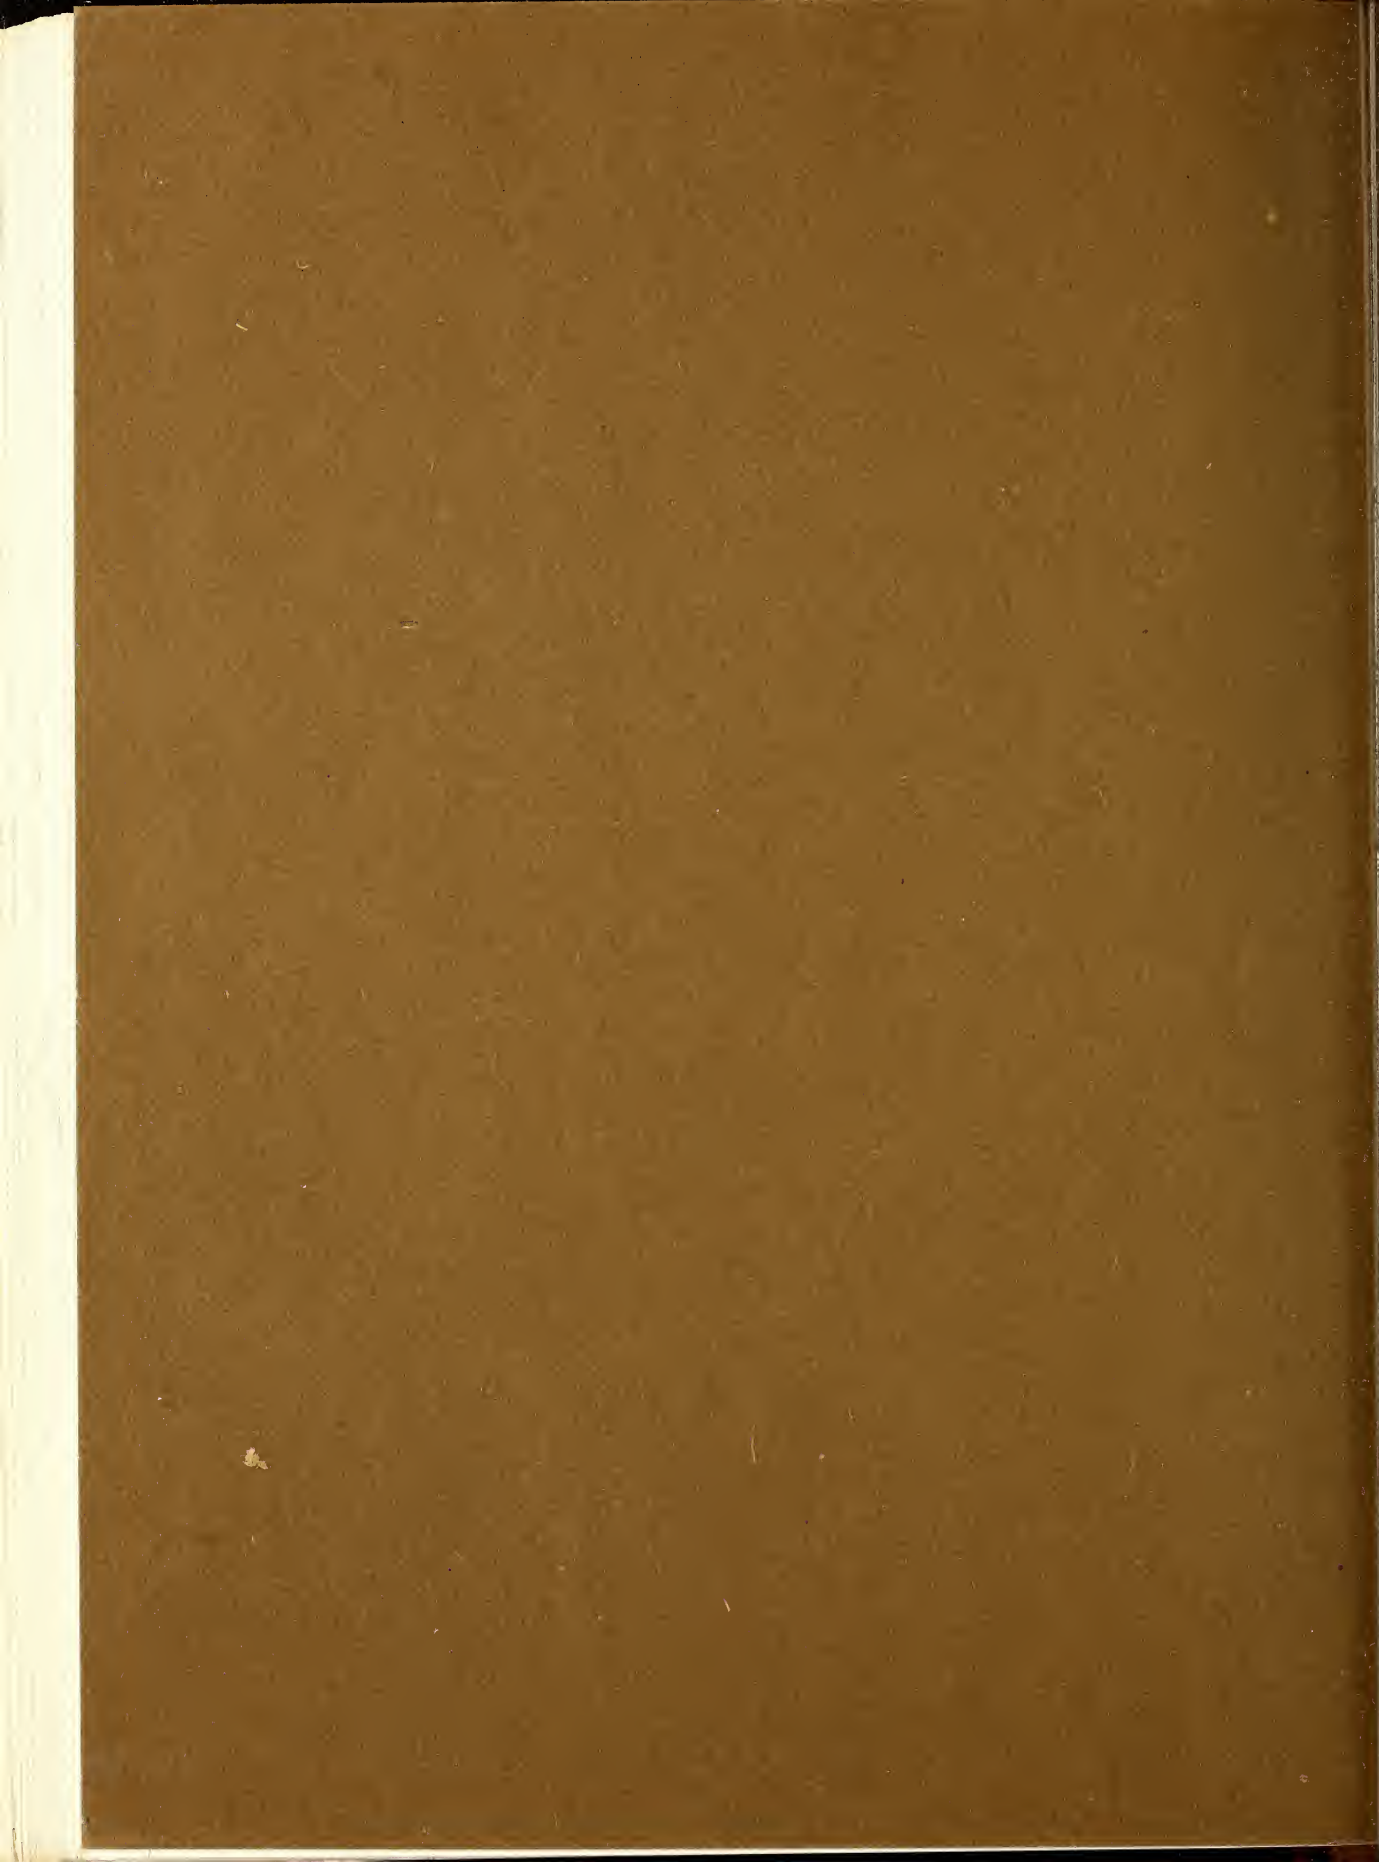

There are six pure fruit flavors of Jell-O: Strawberry, Raspberry, Lemon, Orange, Cherry, Chocolate. Each 10 cents at any grocer's.

Take time, please, to send us your name and address, so we can send you a new Jell-O Book that will tell you how to make delicious things that are too good to miss.
